Cookies

To optimize our web presence we use cookies. Cookies do not cause any damage to your computer and do not contain any virus. Cookies help us to improve our site and to deliver a better and more personalized and secure service for you. Cookies are small text files which are stored on the hard drive of your computer and in your browser.

This site mostly uses session- cookies (temporary use) which are deleted automatically as soon as you close your browser. Other cookies remain on your computer (long-term cookies) until you delete them. These cookies enable us to recognise your browser on your next visit.

You can adjust the setting of your browser in such a way, that you are informed about the placement of cookies and allow cookies only as an exception, that you accept the placement of cookies in specific situations or do not allow the placement in general; this includes the automatic deletion of cookies when the browser is closed. However, if the cookies are deactivated, you may not be able to use the full range of this website's functions.

Data for newsletter and emailing list

If you would like to subscribe to the newsletter and/or e-mail invitations offered on our website, we require your e-mail address as well as information, which enables us to confirm that the stated email address belongs to you and that you agree to receive the newsletter and/or e-invitations. Further data is not stored. We will only use the data for sending the requested material and we will not forward the data to third parties. At any time, you can revoke your consent to the storage of the data, the email address and the use of the data to send the newsletter and/or e-invitations, for example by using the unsubscribe link in the newsletter and in the e-mailinvitations.

Objection to commercial emails

We hereby object to the use of our contact information which we have published here in accordance with the imprint obligation for sending unsolicited commercial emails. We reserve the right to proceed with legal steps in case we receive unsolicited commercial messages, such as spam emails.
